Subject: FW: Potential discussion with Joan Withers today
Importance: High

Emily, AC and Kathleen

I understand Joan Withers wants to set up an urgent teleconference with Ministers today.

It is possible that the purpose is to advise Ministers that MRP is considering an on-market buyback of its shares, and possibly also to ask whether the Crown would participate in that buyback. MRP management contacted Treasury this morning to say that MRP was considering a buyback (which is already public knowledge), to ask if MRP should consult with the Crown before making a decision on a buyback, and if so what legal arrangements would need to be put in place for those discussions.

Our advice is that Ministers should not discuss a buyback proposal with Ms Withers, [8]
It is possible that Ms Withers wants to talk about something else. [4], [8]

We suggest that Ministers avoid having any urgent discussions with Ms Withers, unless she advises in advance what the subject will be, and until Ministers have the opportunity to seek legal advice on that subject, if necessary.
